The 14th Annual Atlanta Black Gay Pride Press Conference

Monday, August 25, 2025 | 6:30 PM

Saltbox, 1314 Chattahoochee Avenue NW, Atlanta, GA 30318

Atlanta, GA — History of Black Gay America (HBGA) and Meak Productions Inc. proudly announce the 14th Annual Atlanta Black Pride Press Conference, setting the stage for the highly anticipated 29th Annual Atlanta Black Gay Pride Celebration on Labor Day Weekend.

This year's press conference takes place on Monday, August 25, 2025, at Meak Productions' Studio Office at Saltbox, beginning with community networking at 6:30PM, followed by the media panel at 7PM. As the official kickoff to Black Pride week, the event brings together leaders, event producers, influencers, and media for an evening of celebration and connection.

Featured Special Guests:

Dr. Elijah Nicholas: Legendary Trans Community Activist and Premiere Talk Show Host, lending his voice to further amplify the event's message of visibility, pride, and unity.

Angela Hutchins: The "1st Lady" of HBGA premiere founder of her new business, Kute Kocktails, as the event's featured mixologist.

Highlights of this year's event include:

The unveiling of 2025-26 inductees of the HBGA Hall of Justice & Fame, honoring outstanding contributors for both the HBGA Atlanta Chapter and National levels.

Representatives from renowned groups such as Atlanta Black Pride, Inc., RT Parties/Mixx Atlanta, LGBT Greek Weekend, Artists In The Afternoon, Pure Heat Community Festival, Rockstars Production, Juan & Gee, CJ Jones, The Marquette Lounge, Romeo Michael, Superman & Friends, Classy Connectionz Corp, Wassup N'ATL and many more will share updates to the public.

"Each year, I strive to bring something new—showcasing fresh voices and honoring our trailblazers," says HBGA Founder & Chair, Miko A. Evans. "This event both preserves history and creates it for future generations."

"I am honored to stand at the intersection of visibility, celebration, and purpose," adds Dr. Elijah Nicholas. "Atlanta is where I've led, fought, healed, and grown. I'm proud to help amplify voices moving our community forward, loving out loud, and living in power."
